Dear _____:

Warmest greetings of peace!

The Zonta Club of Iloilo City I, Inc. and the University of San Agustin will once again hold another prestigious event entitled Her Stories: Celebrating Women through the Arts on November 23, 2018, Friday, at 6:00PM at the University of San Agustin Auditorium. The concert is for the benefit of the projects of the Zonta Club of Iloilo I, Hilway Art Project "Inday Dolls" and the Culture and Arts Advocacy of the University of San Agustin.

The Hilway Art Project "Inday Dolls" is an art healing and rehabilitation project of the Iloilo City Jail - Female Dorm in collaboration with the Zonta Club of Iloilo City I, Inc. and the University of San Agustin. Inday Dolls are handcrafted, eccentric, and embedded with stories and dreams by the female inmates from the Iloilo City District Jail. The project not only provided the women behind bars with creative rehabilitation process that enables them to transcend their angst and pain into tangible manifestations and new life, but also helped them to earn to support their families.

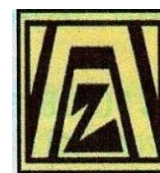

Thus, the Performing Arts Groups (PAGs) of the University will team-up with the members of the Zonta Club of Iloilo I to raise funds for this purpose. Noteworthy to say that the USA Choir & Troubadours are internationally acclaimed as one of the best choral groups in the Philippines having won two Golds and the Most Outstanding Soprano Soloist distinction in the Orientale Concentus VIII International Choral Festival in Singapore. The Kawilihan and Little Theater have received national awards from Ani ng Dangal Award and Ten Accomplished Youth Organization, respectively. The USA Band is known for its festive music that has entertained the city and province of Iloilo.

This celebration will also be a venue to mobilize resources in support of the scholarships of the USA Performing Arts Groups.
